SIDE EVENT, Palais des Nations, Geneva

TUESDAY 3 May, 13.15-14.45, Room XXV

Humanitarian Impacts of Nuclear Weapons, from 1945 to Future Security

Come and be part of the PANEL CONVERSATION BETWEEN:

• Setsuko Thurlow, who survived the atomic bombing of Hiroshima when she was 13 years old, and has spent her life raising awareness of nuclear dangers and disarmament;
• Dr Ira Helfand, US physician and co-President of IPPNW, who has written about the global climate and agricultural consequences of a "limited nuclear war" in his ground-breaking study "Nuclear Famine"; and
• Ambassador Thomas Hajnoczi, Permanent representative of Austria to the United Nations in Geneva.

Moderated by Dr Rebecca Johnson, Acronym Institute for Disarmament Diplomacy, IPFM and ICAN, author of "Unfinished Business" on the CTBT and NPT, "Trident and International Law".

This side event is sponsored by the Acronym Institute for Disarmament Diplomacy, IPPNW, Peace Boat and Hibakusha Stories
